

Soul Eater post presents:

TREMORS

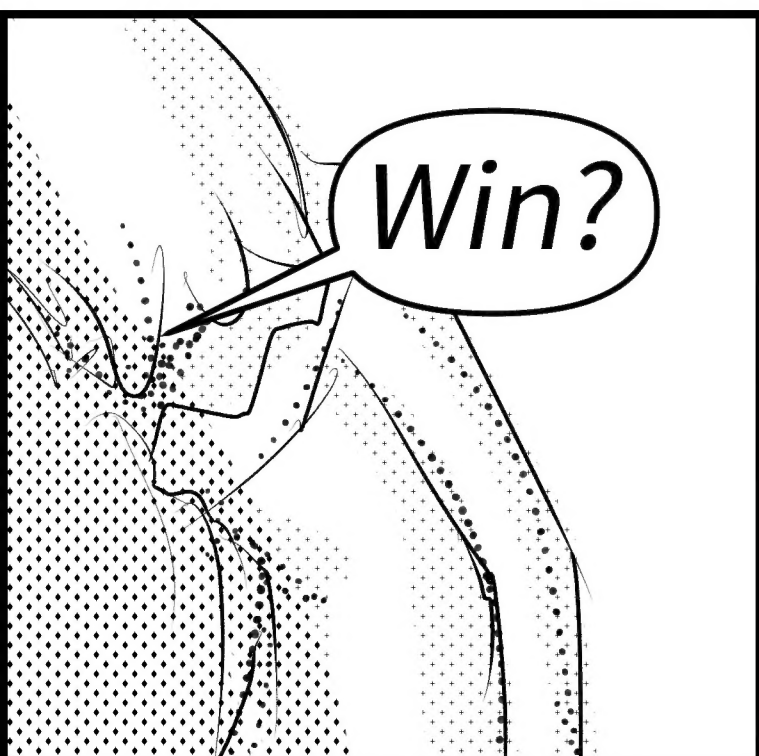

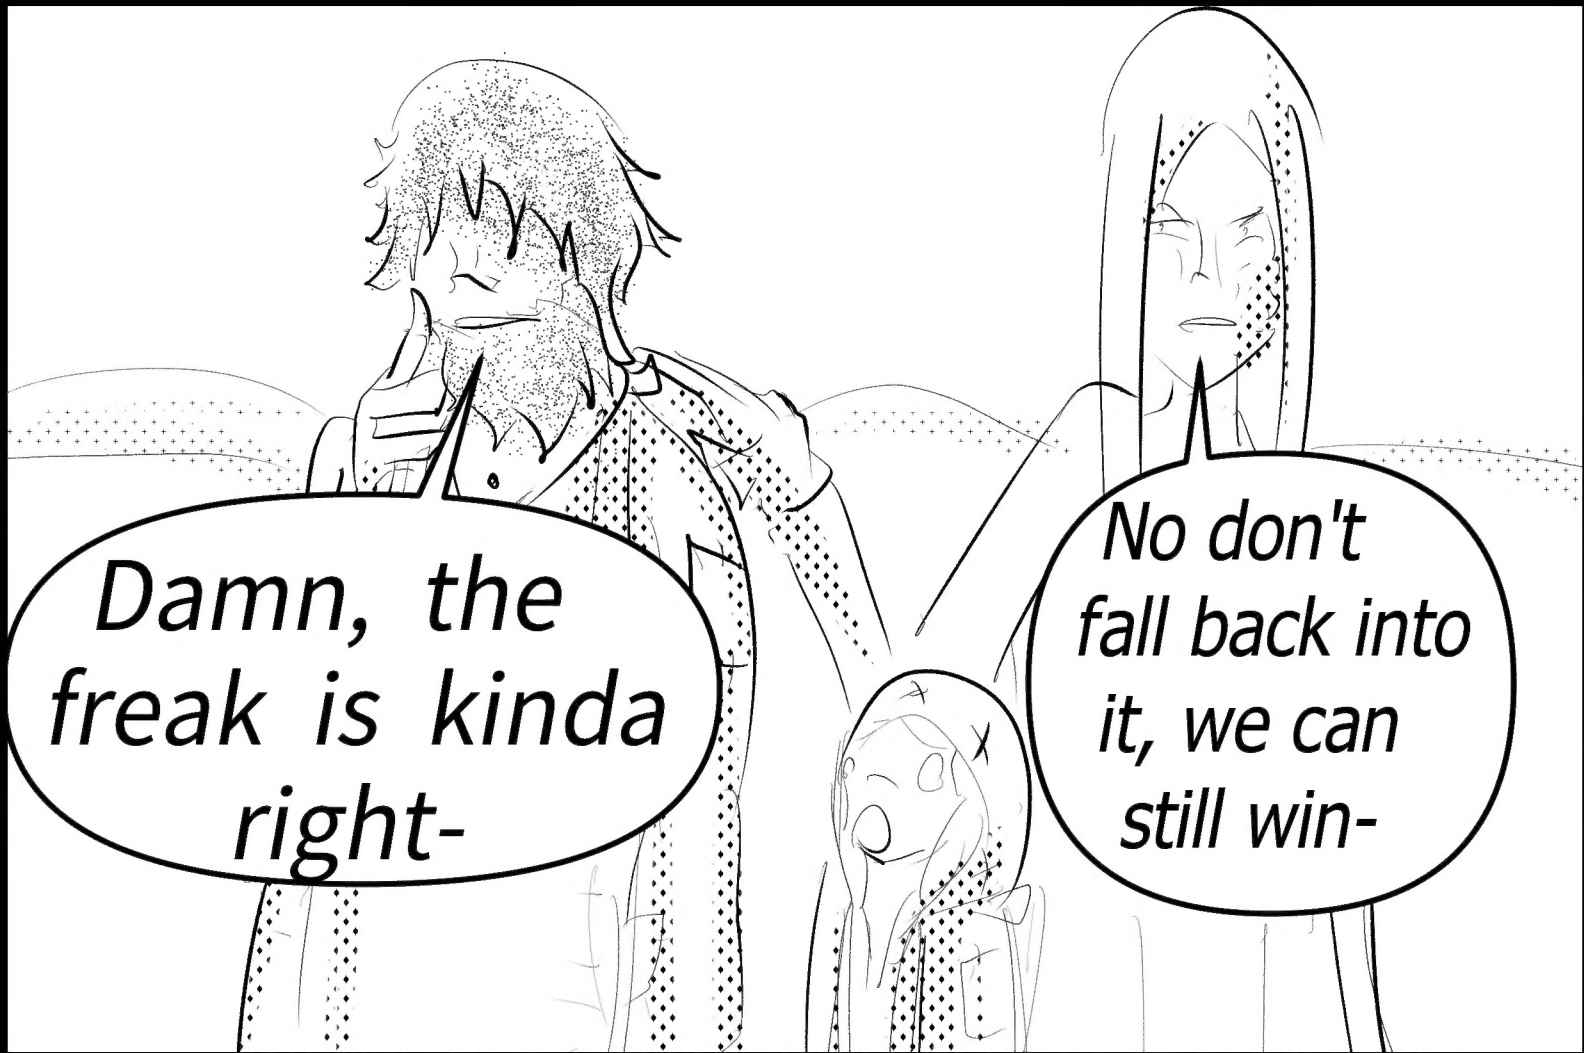

MONDO MONGOLIAN MANEATING MAGGOTS

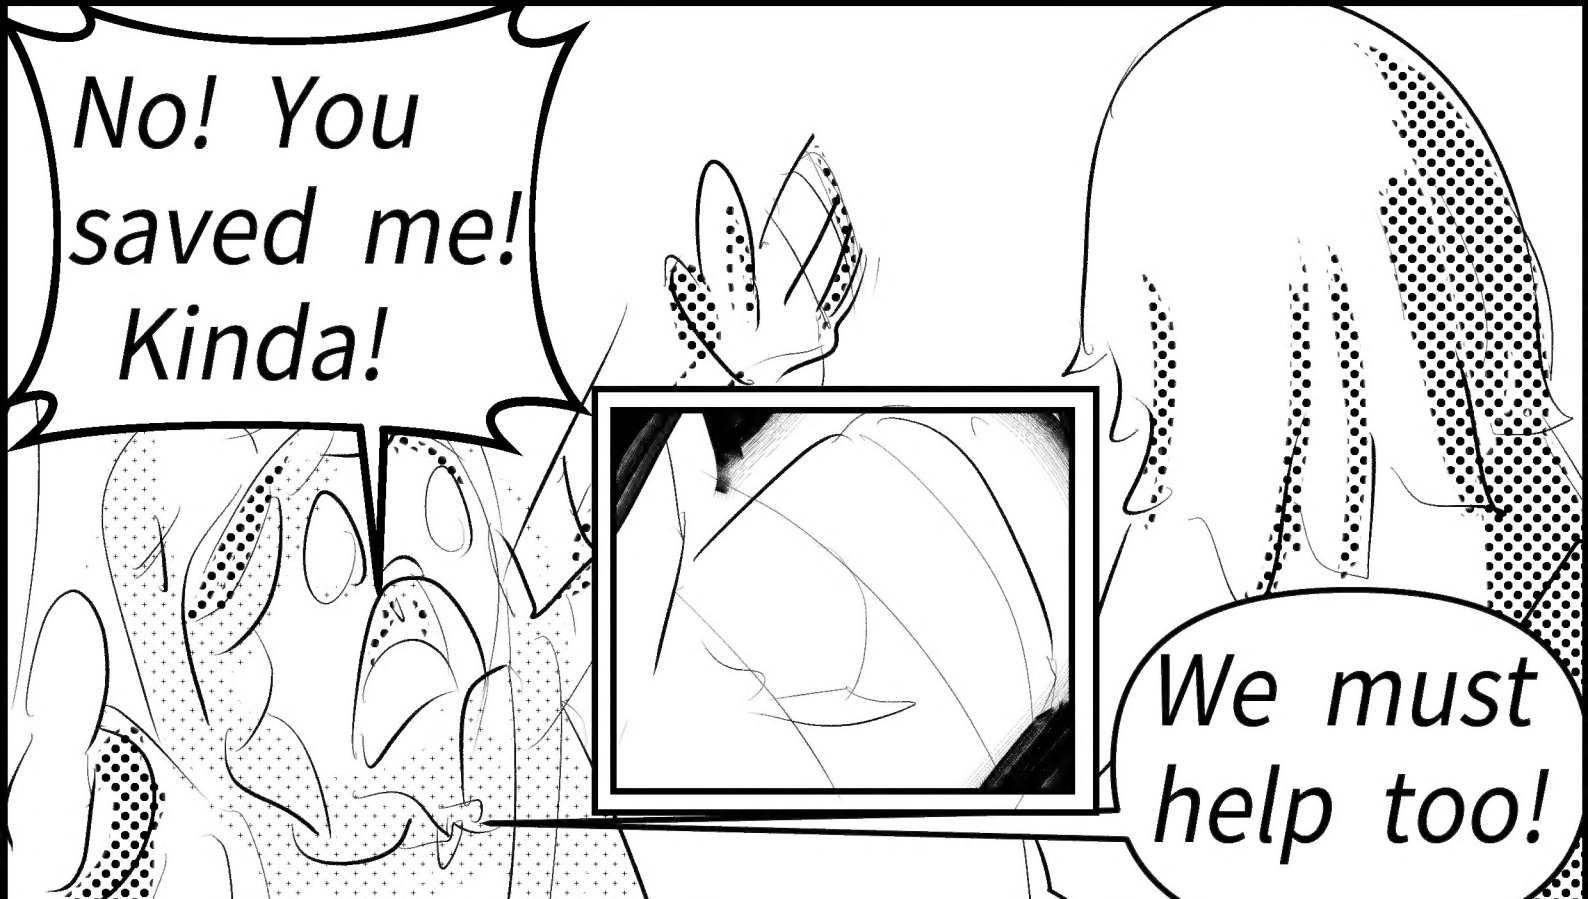

The desert of the red 7

And you think just cause you got your finger family all back together

No! You
saved me!
Kinda!

We must help too!

No, I just paid you back...

Eh ah! x

Seems the donkey chocked
on the carrot

No choice now

This is it then

It's "proving myself to be a death-scythe" time

Saving you, the smiling hostages and taking out 3 worms plus the blackhat

What could possibly go wrong?

Yeah!

A lot

I'll just have to do this and-

Oh, a snack!

Not for you my dear

But why not?

Let's just say it's wormfood

They forgot to start crying in their desperation

Well then...

lick

Everybody jump!

Not horsey!

Sorry, this is the only way

Cowgirl, can you make a spark?

Yeah

Zip

Shick

Hope it ate the bag under our donkey

Gulp²

BAW

Pretty sure it did

I knew the dynamite would pay off!

Crap, after paying so much for shipping

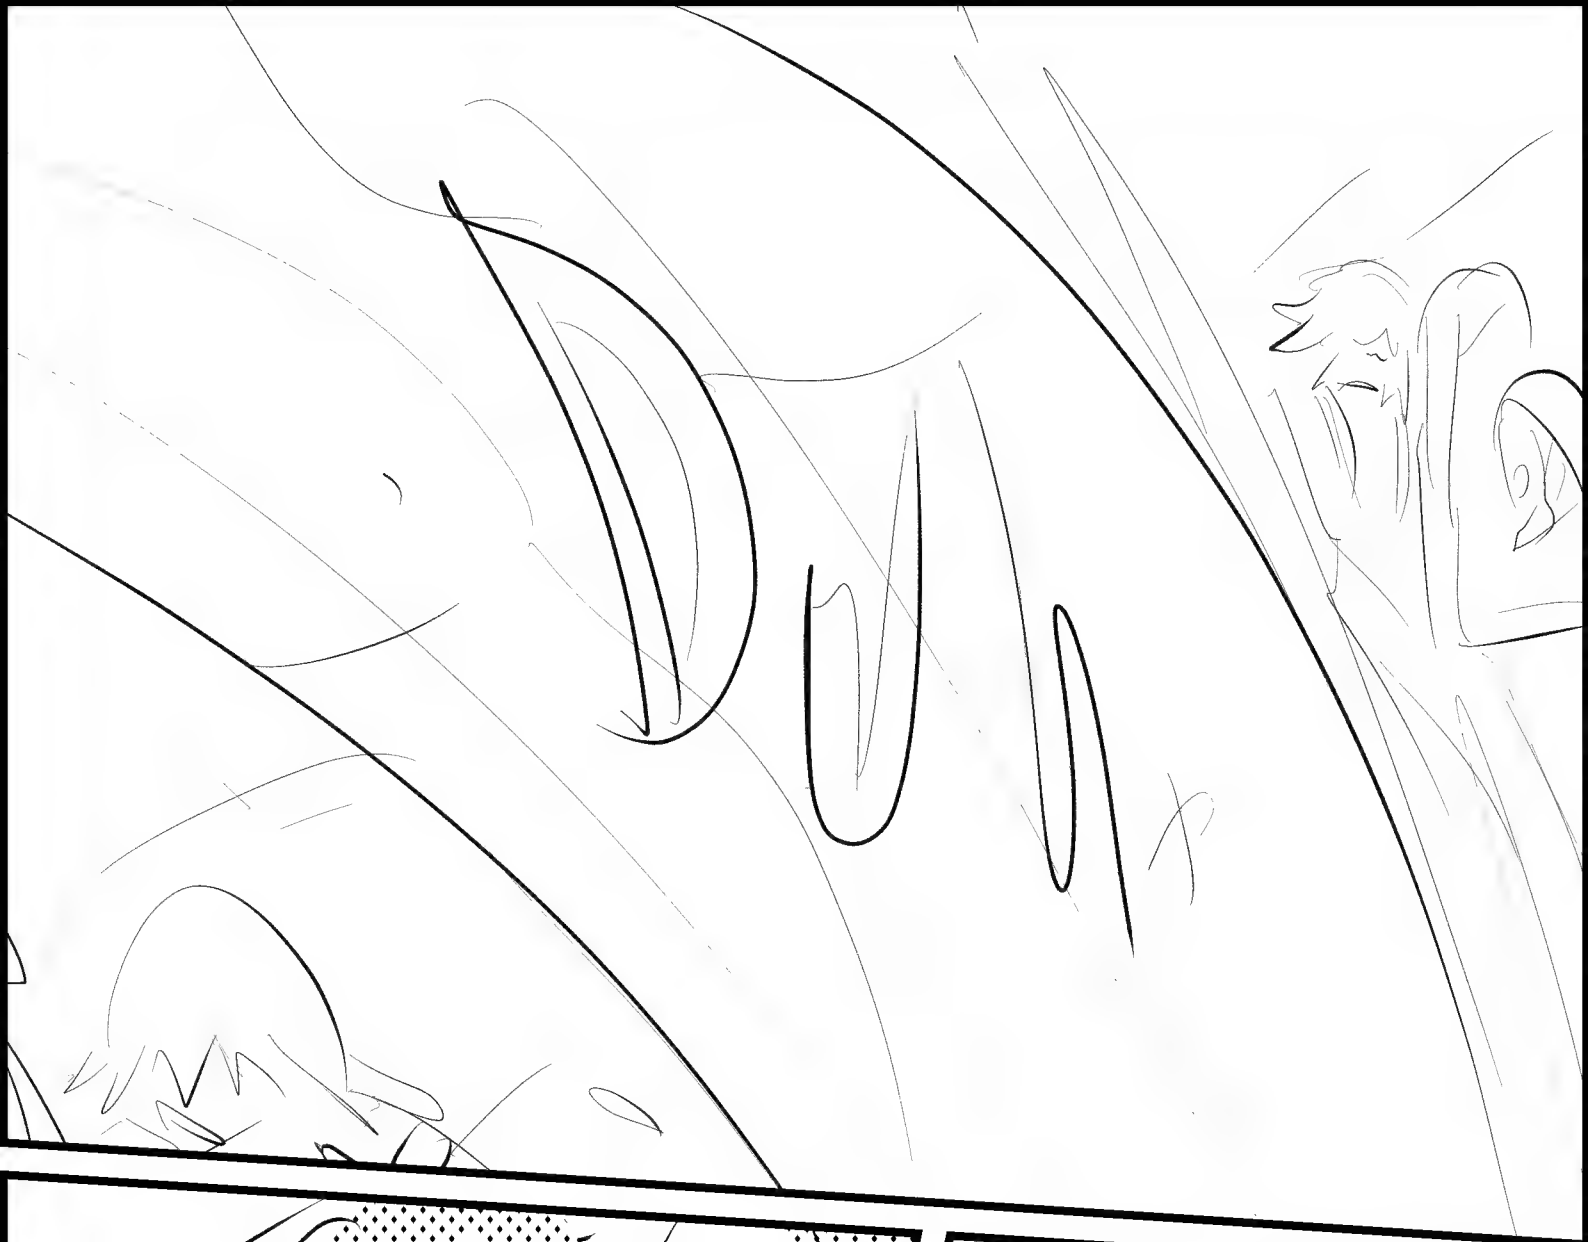

No matter, they must be out of explosives

Like what are the odds that they saved one stick for later...

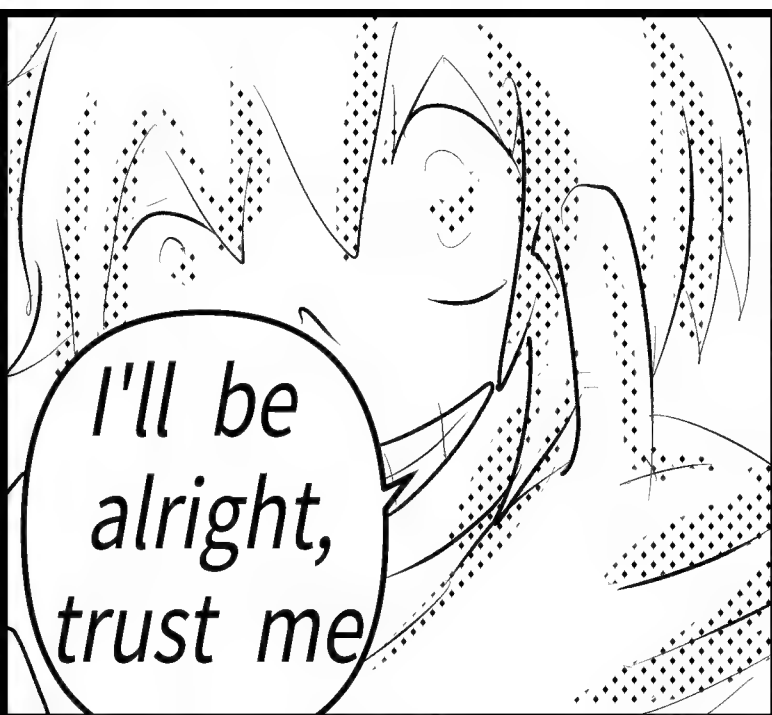

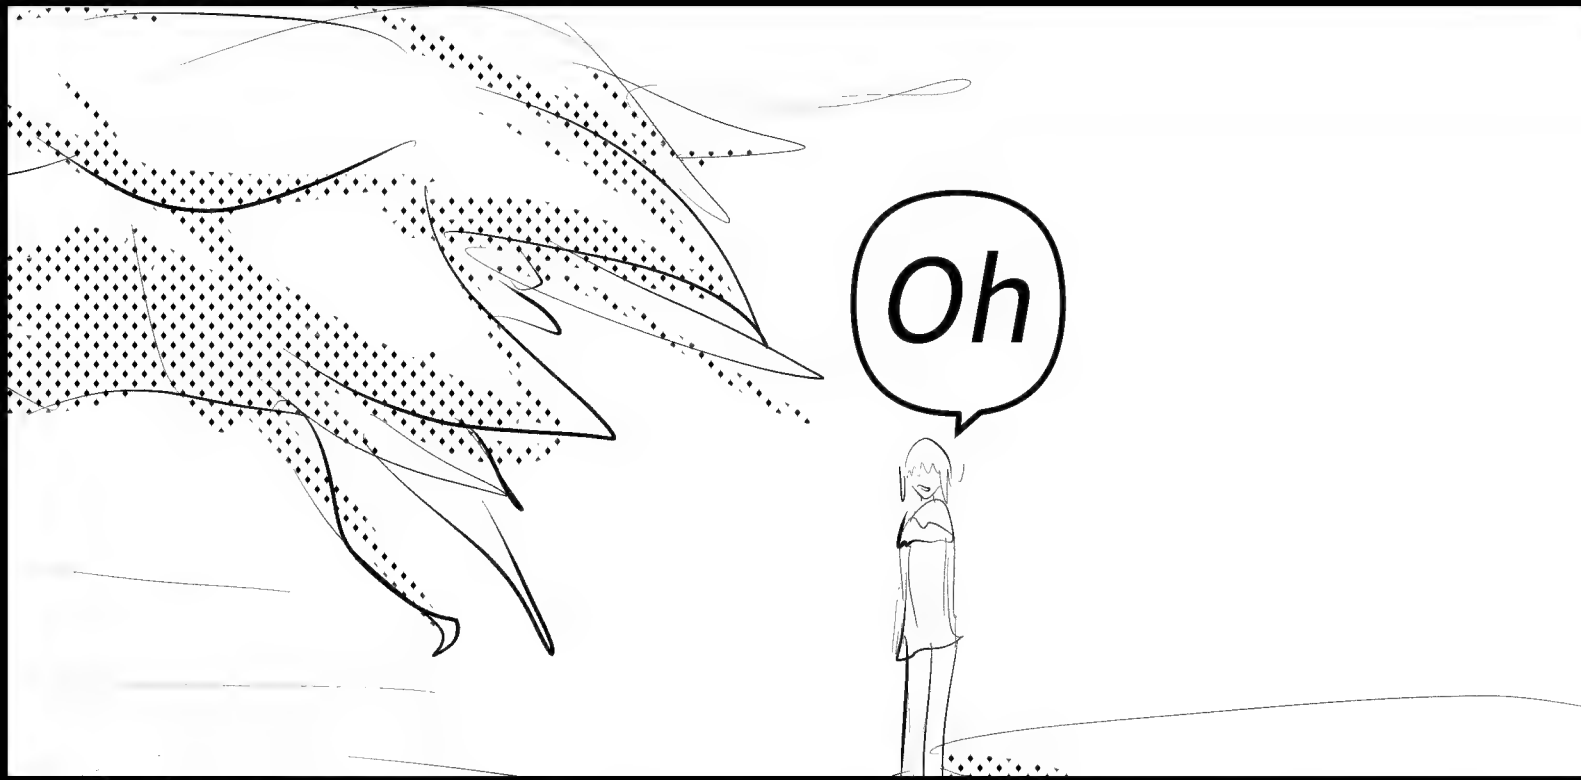

So...

Grab em!

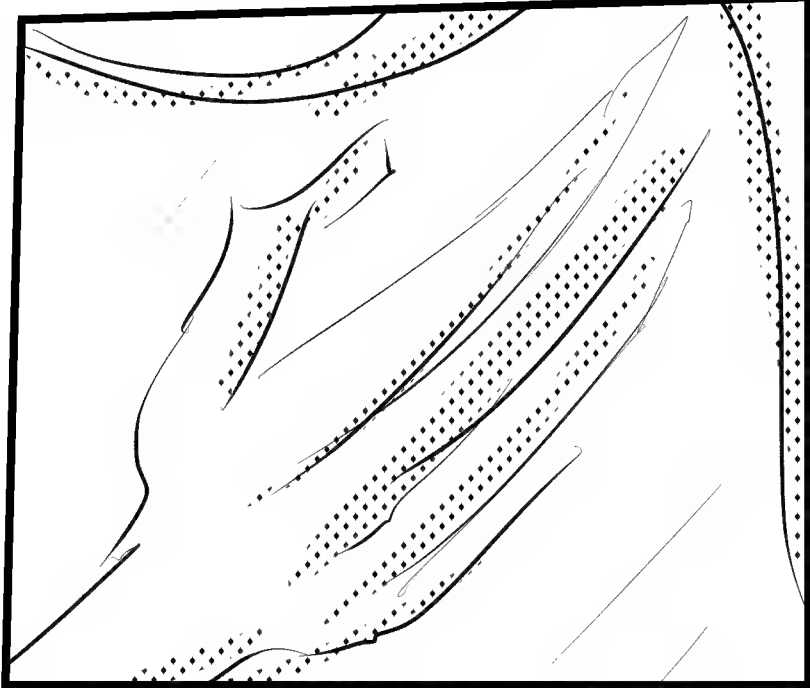

From
the other side, look out!

huh

Hahaha! So much for the little Death Scythe!

I'm getting the hang of it!

Now gotta break the paleface

Or atleast
his control

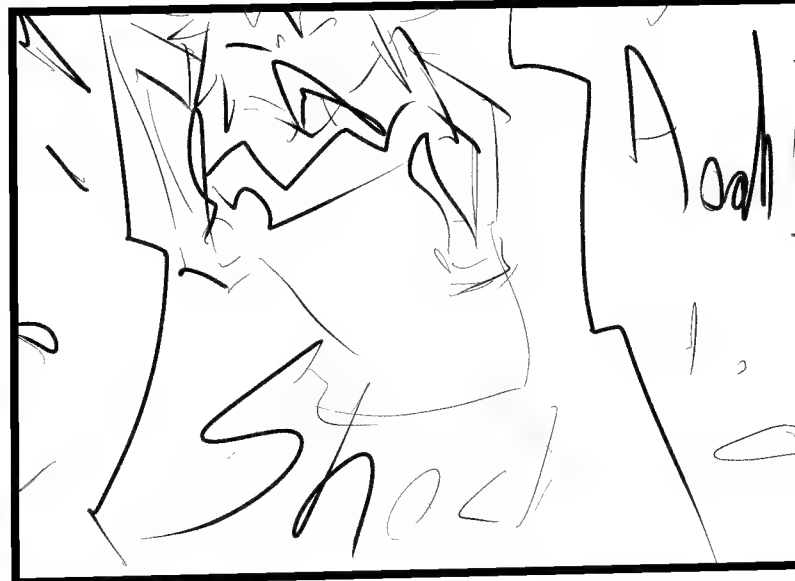

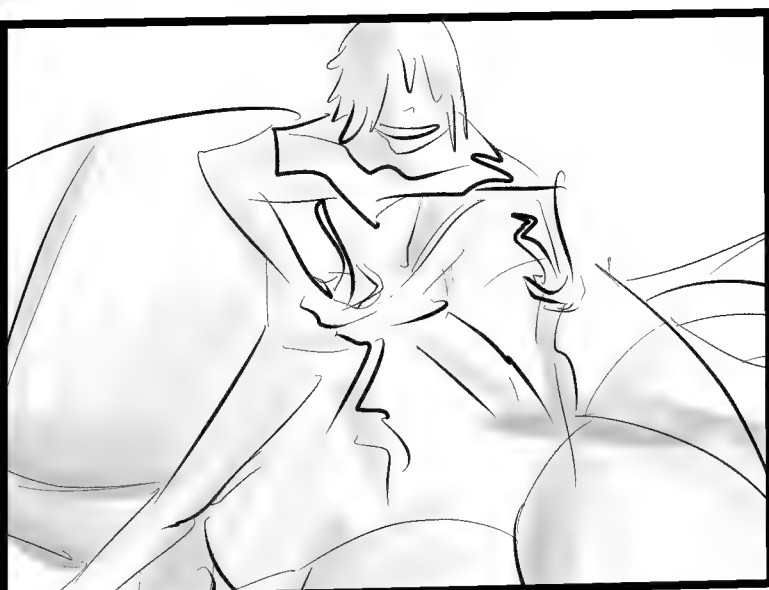

before it's to late

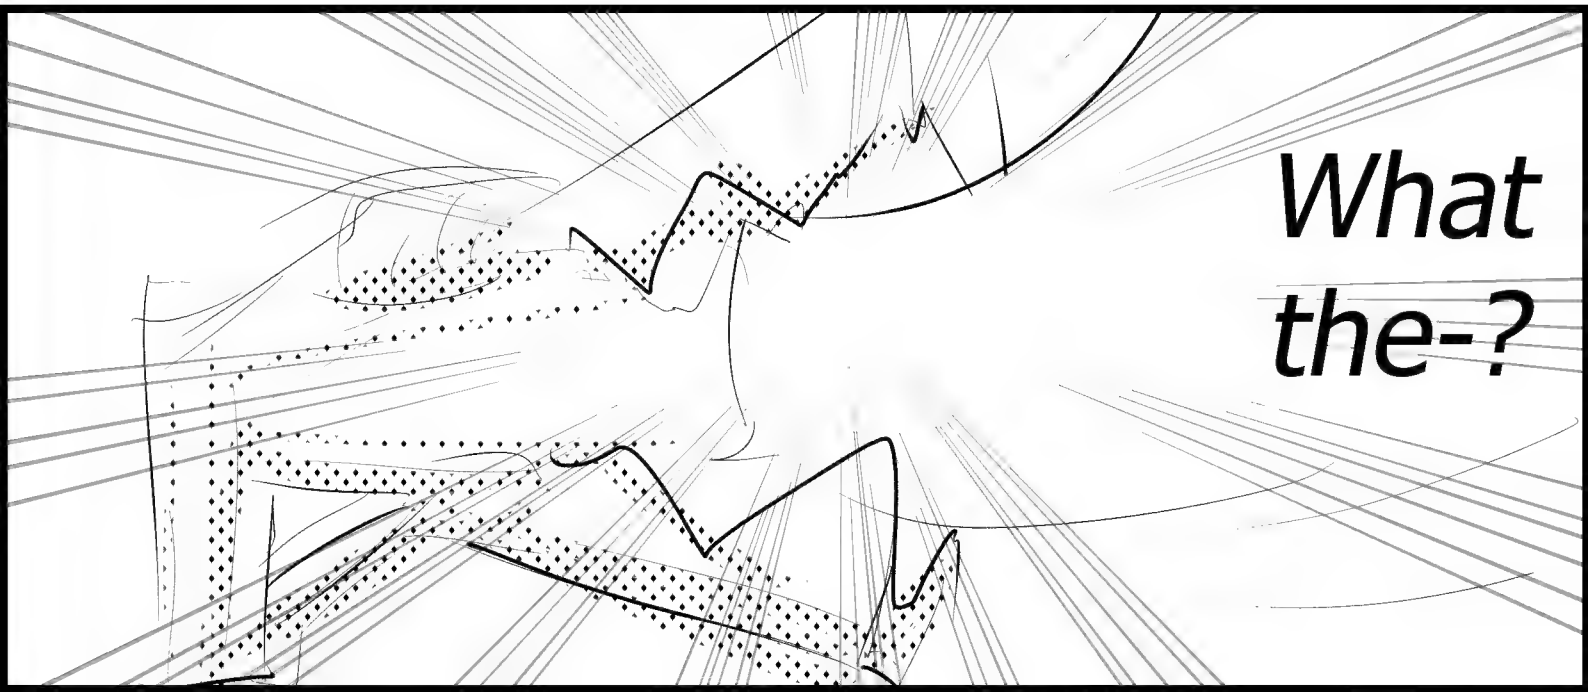

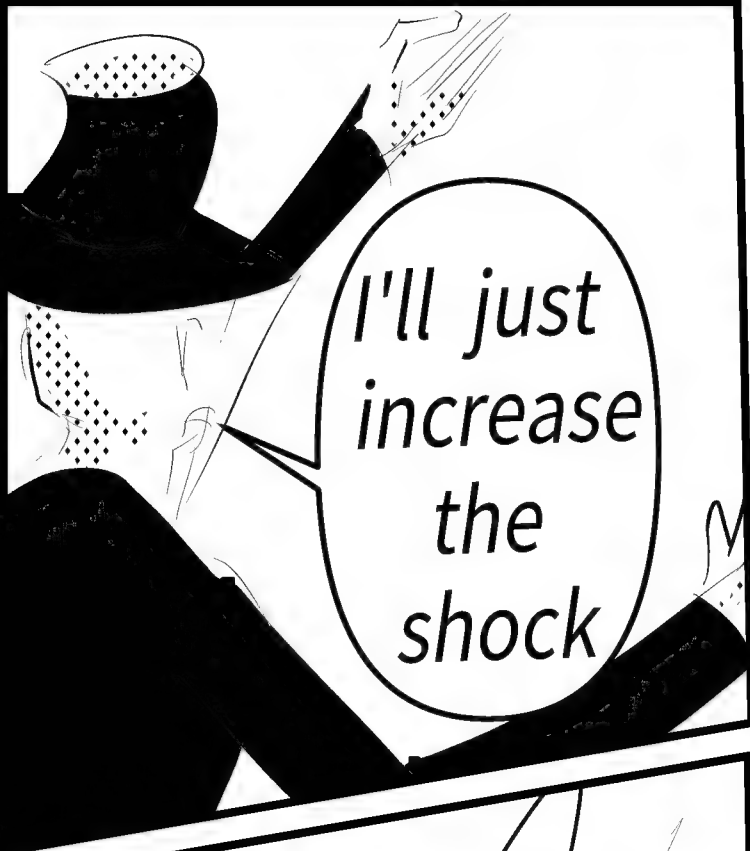

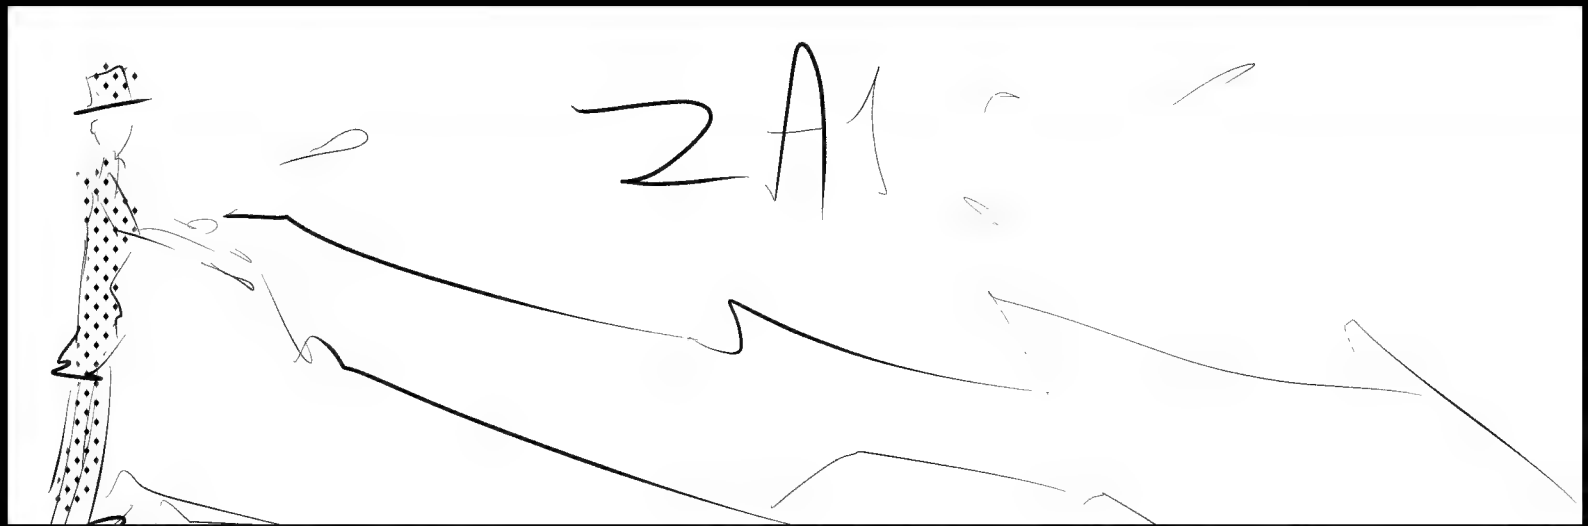

Hrrr...

She'll think twice about stealin' my property after this

Augh

I finally figured out my powerup

Yeah, now blow up the other worm!

*Yeah I just need to absorb energy attacks while in gun
form and fire
them back!*

Oh ok, I'll just don't shock you then

*Why did she explain
it out loud, stupid*

When keeping it real goes totally wrong

"Oh he got just one worm left so we gonna win!"

Thats what you think, huh?

So be it, I'm the underdog that succeeds in the end now!

My worm!

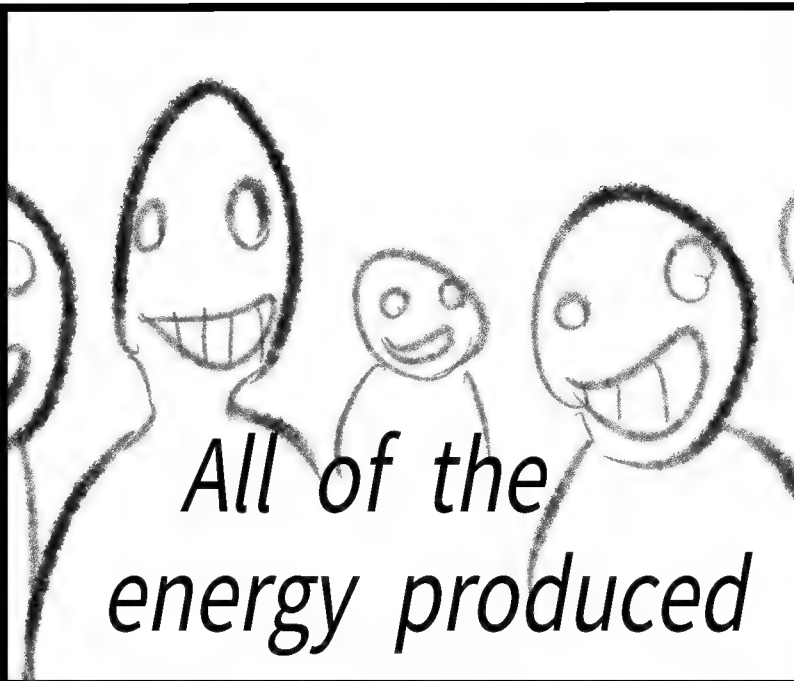

Slither to me!

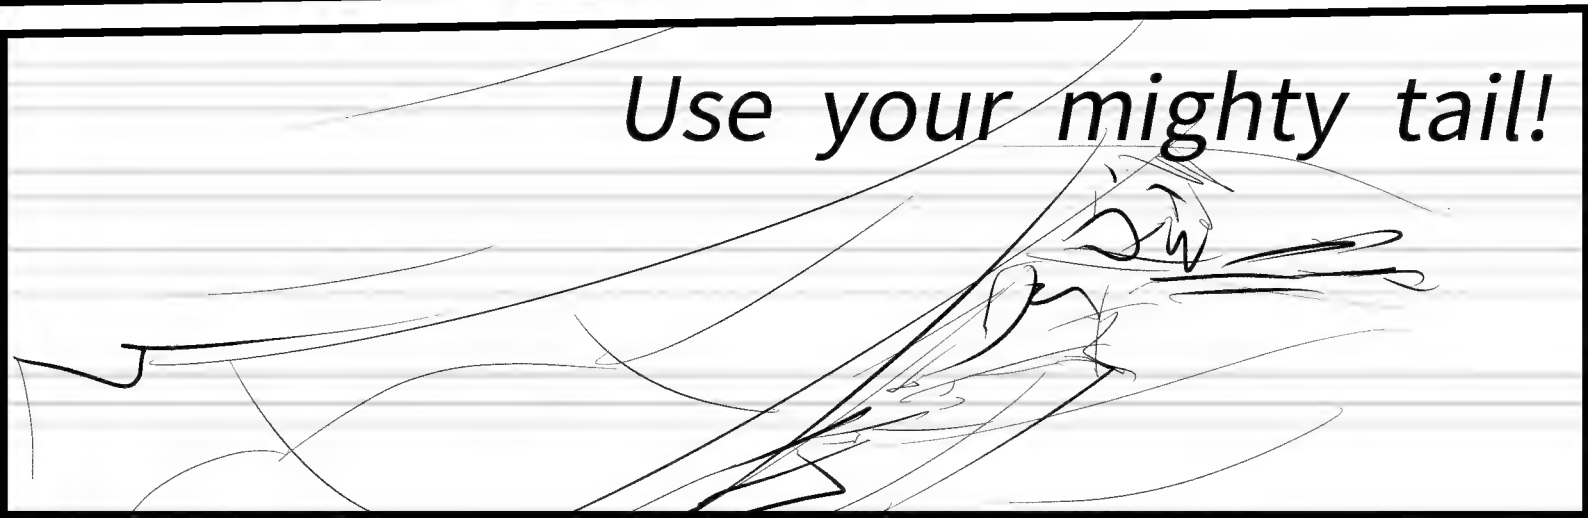

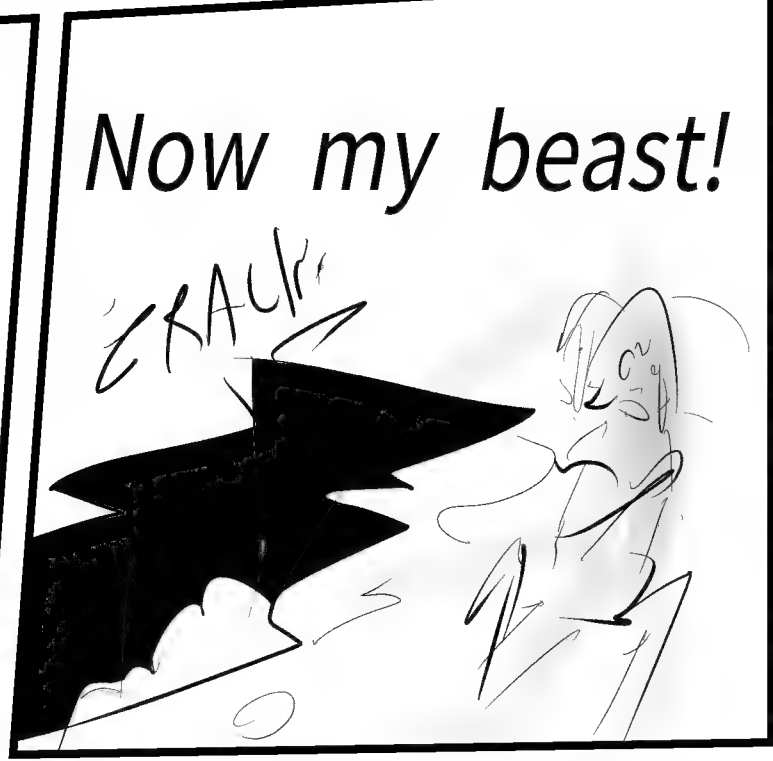

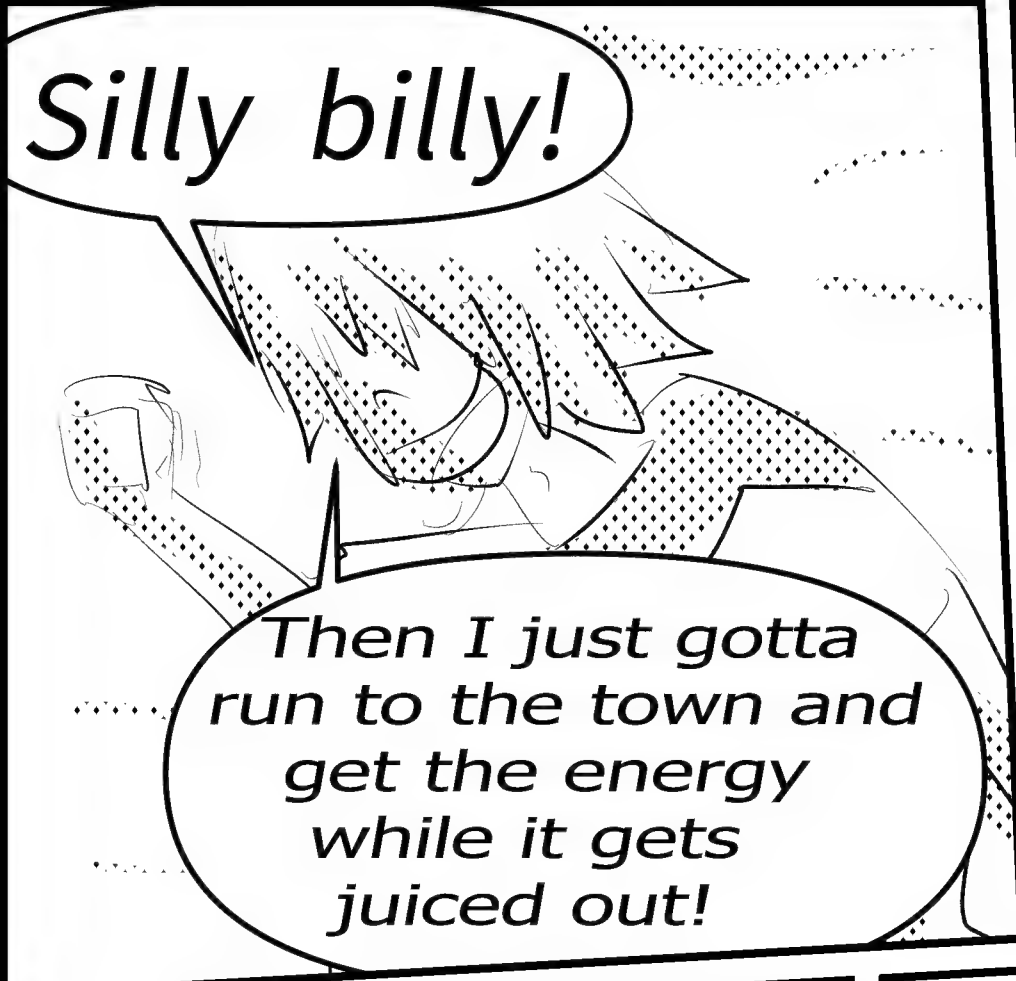

Lets show them my reality!

All the tunnels in my city connect back to here!

A sketch of a figure, possibly a woman, rising from a pile of debris. The figure is wearing a long, patterned dress and has a determined expression. The debris consists of several sharp, angular pieces. The background is white with some faint, horizontal lines.

Haha, the little slingshot is acting uppity!

We aren't meisters honey...

It has to work!

To save the alien girl!

Oh how cute!

You gonna shot your teeny wavelength at me?

Nah, something that will blast you back to Nibiru

What-

Full

*sh/zh/

Sapstick!

BEING

Doesn't look so scary without his helmet on

He's just some loser

*I'll show you!
If I want it enough, it will happen!*

*Go consume them as I bid you, oh you wonderful creature,
my true soulmate!*

Ugh...

Trashcan

alive!

An UFO?

And so, the Dark City

got it's just deserts

Now I can hide my rotten teeth again...

My cheek
muscles hurt

Oh, so I was 10 miles away from Death City
all this time?

Esoteric information got exchanged

Family bonds reforged

Zeta, you may be named after the last letter, but you certainly

And some things got accepted

So brother
isn't sleeping...

Well who knows

This is just a glowing blue orb

Even considered to use it for wormbait...

Nothing
special...

But even if silly

I feel he does or at least will wake one day...

That his soul is more than this-

But till then

We will live on

So long!

You really are going?

Yeah, now that I figured out how a compass works

And gotta get the worm outta here before it gets hungry
again

Yeah that sound like the most prudent
thing to do

Wow,
something is wrong
then

Cause that doesn't sound like me at all

haha-

huh-

Your space

you can breathe
back home

Then it's settled

hey up

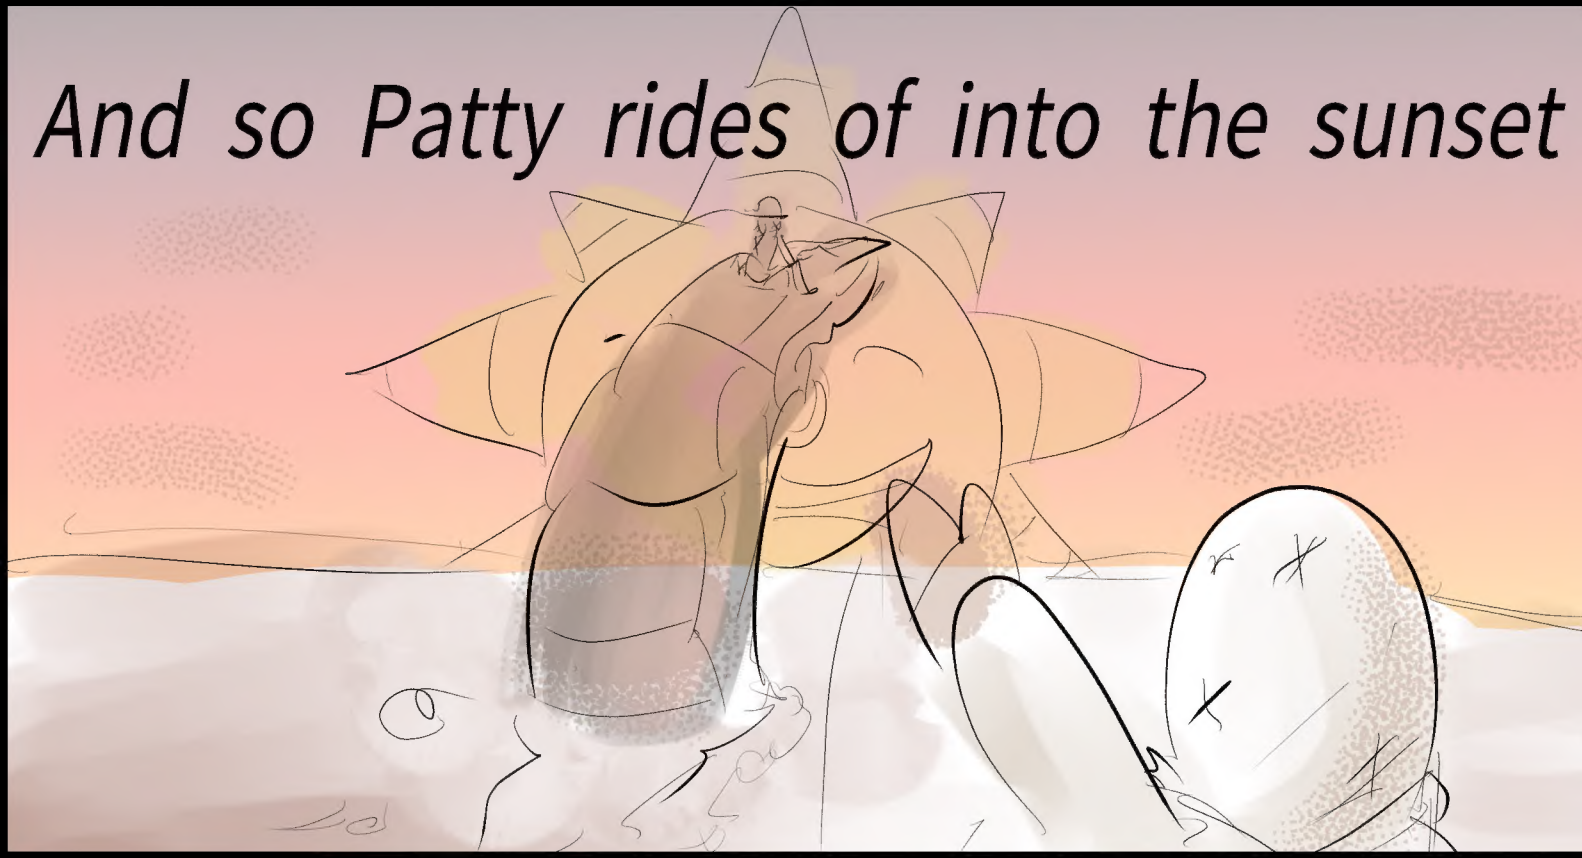

See ya!

Zeta, come to the DWMA, I bet you would be a better student then me!

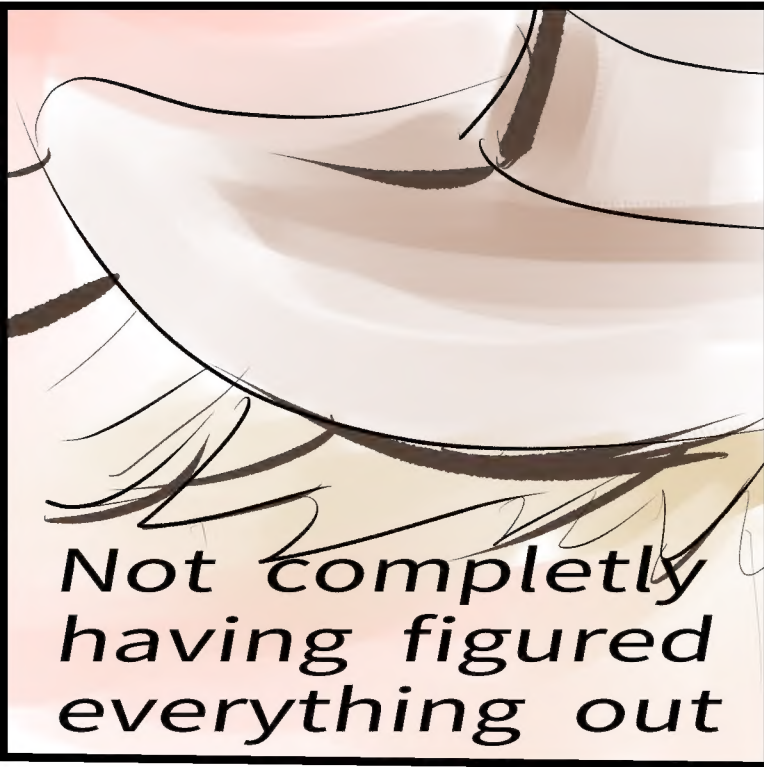

AUGH!

Let's don't go that far, everybody knows how public schools-

And so Patty rides off into the sunset

Not completely having figured everything out

But with hope that she will someday

Because no matter how silly it's to think one adventure will fix all your troubles

Crying about how it doesn't is even dumber
